DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a Notice of Allowability in response to the Amendment received on 15 March 2006. Claims 10, 11, 33 and 50-81 have been cancelled. Claims 18, 34, 49, 91, 94 and 95 have been amended. Claims 1-9, 12-32, 34-49 and 82-106 remain pending in this application.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. Claims 1-9, 12-32, 34-49 and 82-106 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As per claim 1, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach selecting two or more days of the week using a first region of a first screen of the touch screen user interface and individually changing the at least one schedule parameter for one or more periods during the selected days using a second region of the first screen of the touch screen user interface.

As per claim 18, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach selecting two or more days of the week using the menu-driven user interface of the HVAC thermostat to modify the schedule; changing the at least one schedule parameter for one or more periods during the selected days, resulting in a modified schedule and operating the HVAC thermostat in accordance with the modified schedule.

As per claim 34, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach the editing mode allows the user to use the user interface of the programmable controller to concurrently select two or more days of the week to modify the schedule, and to edit the schedule parameters for the selected days.

As per claim 49, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach the editing mode allows the user to use the user interface of the programmable controller to concurrently select one or more periods of the schedule for two or more selected days of the week, and to edit the schedule parameters for the selected periods and days.

As per claim 91, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach selecting two or more days of the week using one or more of the keys and changing the at least one schedule parameter for one or more periods during the selected days using one or more of the keys.

As per claim 94, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach selecting two or more days of the week; displaying a day selection indicator spaced from and adjacent to each of the day indicators that correspond to the selected days of the week; and changing the at least one schedule parameter for one or more periods of the selected days of the week.

As per claim 97, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach selecting two or more days of the week; displaying two or more day selection indicators for indicating which of the days of the week have been selected; and during the changing step, displaying the changed at least one schedule parameter and the day selection indicators on the display.

As per claim 104, the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to teach providing a visual indication on the display that indicates to a user of the controller that more than one day of the week may be selected; selecting two or more days of the week; and changing the at least one schedule parameter for one or more periods during the selected days of the week.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
